The Money Market.

The foreign advices by the Persia, to the 20th, it is presumed had an unfavorable effect, showing, as they do, signs of continued uneasiness in connection with French politics, &c. In addition, there is a decline of ad. in cotton, our great staple, while breadstuffs are no better, and provisions tended downward also. Large speelative purchases are reported in flour. The specie in the English bank continued to increase under the limited demand for money in the restricted state of business. There was some increase of the demand for discount at bank, however, in the last two days. ## AUCTION SALES.

DOTOMAC LAND FOR SALE.—The undersigned desires to sell a TRACT OF LAND, on the Waters of Potomac Creek, in Stafford County, Va., containing TEN HUN-DRED AND TWENTY ACRES. It borders on the Creek (which is navigable) 21 miles, and is distant about one mile from the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railroad. The soil is very productive in all the usual grain crops, but particularly adapted to the growth of Tobacco and Grass, though it is of uneven sur-

There is on the land inexhaustible beds of the finest shell Marl. A large quantity of Hickory. Oak and Pine Wood may be cut from the land worth on the shore of the creek from two to tour dollars per cord. Also, a good deal of Cedar and Locust, Yellow Popular and White Oak Timber.

There is a meadow now yielding an average f $500 worth of Hay per annum, containing fourteen Acres of land, which may be increased to fifty acres of prime Meadow. Grass grows well all over the Land, which renders it valuable for grazing purposes. Indeed, it grazes annually, about fifty head of cattle in the woods. Altogether it is a very valuable tract, but I am disposed to sell it below its value, as I own another large farm adjoining it, and have not a sufficient force to manage both. I invite persons disposed to purchase such property to examine it, or communicate with me by letter at Accokeek Post-Office, Stafford county, Va. JOHN MINOR, M. D.
